Common Questions
How do I list an Item?
How can I receive more Quotes?
There is no special formula to make your delivery look more attractive but we do advise that you give as such detail as possible when listing your item/s. A Transport Provider is going to be more willing to bid if he or she has a clear understanding of your job in hand. Being flexible on your delivery dates will certainly help you improve your chances of finding a company going your way with room to spare. Also, be sure your delivery is in the correct category.
